Privacy and personal information

Council is committed to privacy protection and complies with the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 and Government Information Public Access Act 2009. The Maitland City Council Privacy Management Plan can be found online at: <https://www.maitland.nsw.gov.au/document/privacy-management-plan-0> The personal information collected on this form will be used to provide contact information and determine appropriate work and safety environments to perform volunteer functions. The intended recipients are Maitland City Council events team or other Maitland City Council staff and their contractors as required. The supply of this information is voluntary, though Council will be unable to accept the application without it.

Volunteering conditions

I agree to act as a volunteer on behalf of Maitland City Council. I understand that if I am accepted as a volunteer I will be required to attend a compulsory Volunteer Induction training session where I will receive the Festival Volunteer Manual and that I will be required to comply with all conditions outlined in the training / manual. I understand that upon receipt of the training / manual if I am unable or unwilling to comply with all conditions that I can choose to withdraw my application.

Personal information obtained from volunteers by Council is governed by the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (PPIPA).

This legislation provides direction for the collection, protection, storage, disposal, access and use of personal information by Council.

If you are volunteering to work with the elderly, people with disability, youth and/or children, you may be required to consent to Council undertaking a criminal record check. Are you willing to give permission to undertake the check?
